CANADIAN DIRECTORY OF MARINE SHIPPING

The Canadian Directory of Marine Shipping covers all aspects of the marine sector and receives broad international and domestic circulation to industries and governments. It is used extensively for information and sourcing purposes.

The publication provides information on liner shipping services calling at Canadian ports, as well as the names and addresses of vessel owners, agents and operators in Canada. It includes Canadian domestic services and off-shore vessel operators and the names and addresses of firms providing the varied ancillary services to marine shipping. Shipping conferences in Canadian trade routes, associations related to the marine sector and government offices involved in transportation and trade are also listed.

Every effort has been made to ensure that the contents of this directory is up-do-date. However, if changes have occured since printing or if errors or omissions have been identified, please send the correct information to:

ANNUAIRE DES SERVICES DE TRANSPORT MARITIME AU CANADA

L'Annuaire des services de transport maritime au Canada porte sur tous les aspects de ce secteur et bénéficie d'une large diffusion internationale et intérieure au sein des entreprises et des gouvernements. Il est utilisé sur une grande échelle à des fins documentaires et pour trouver des transporteurs maritimes.

Cette publication fournit des renseignements sur les services maritimes qui desservent les ports canadiens, ainsi que les noms et adresses d'armateurs, d'agents et d'exploitants canadiens. Elle comprend les services intérieurs et les services hors frontière, de même que les noms et adresses de sociétés assurant aux transporteurs maritimes divers services auxiliaires. Les conférences maritimes sur les routes commerciales canadiennes, les associations relatives au secteur du transport maritime ainsi que les bureaux gouvernementaux qui s'occupent de transport et de commerce y sont également énumérés.

Nous n'avons ménagé aucun effort pour nous assurer que le contenu de l'annuaire est à jour. Mais si des changements se sont produits depuis l'impression, ou que des erreurs ou omissions ont été relevées, veuillez en faire état à:

SECTION 1

Industry, Science and Technology Canada
Canadian Directory of Marine Shipping - 1992

Industrie, Sciences et Technologie Canada
Annuaire des Services de Transport Maritime au Canada - 1992

Explanation of Marine Terms, Phrases and Abbreviations

All Purpose Vessel

A ship that can handle break-bulk cargo, neo-bulk cargo, unit loads, containers, and roll-on/roll-off vehicles, cargo and equipment.

Bill of Lading

A document which is a receipt for cargo received on board a vessel and is evidence of the contract between shipping and shipowner. It is also evidence of title to the goods described on it.

Break Bulk Cargo

General cargo loaded package by package, unitized or not, but not in containers.

Bulk Cargo

Commodities shipped loose or in mass, which in loading or unloading are ordinarily shovelled, scooped, forked, mechanically conveyed or pumped, and are not in packages or containers or in units of such size to permit piece by piece handling.

Charter

Leasing of a ship.

Combination Containers and Dry Bulk Ship

A vessel with holds slotted to accommodate containers and open holds for the stowage of dry bulk cargoes.

Combination Containers and General Cargo Ship

A vessel constructed with holds to handle general cargo, but in which containers are also accommodated. Such vessels may have some slotted holds to accommodate the containers.

Conferences

Associations of Ocean Carriers which regulate and set tariff rates, charges and conditions for the transport of goods by water, by member carriers.

Containers

Anything in which articles are packed. Mainly used in reference to vessel cargo containers employed for the purpose of carrying break bulk cargo. Containers can be transported intermodally by road and rail carriers and certain sizes by air carriers.

Container Ship

A vessel that is constructed to only accommodate steel containers in under-deck framed compartments (slots), and with the capability of securing containers for stowage on-deck.

Domestic Service

Transportation operations within the territory of Canada.

Dry Bulk Self-Unloader Ship

A self-unloading vessel highly automated with a built in conveyor system for fast discharge, which eliminates the need for shore-based facilities.

Dry Bulk Ship

A vessel with holds suitable for the accommodation and transportation of dry bulk cargoes such as coal, iron ore, grain, etc.

General Cargo

Any non-bulk cargo moving in packaged form, unit loads or in containers.

Husbandry

Looking after port requirements and the needs of a vessel.

International Service

Transportation operations between Canadian and foreign ports.

LASH Ship (Lighter Aboard Ship)

A vessel constructed with a travelling crane to load and unload barge-type lighters at the stern. The lighters are used as "cargo holds" of the mother ship, which can load and discharge in deep water divorced of all port facilities.

Liner Service

Vessels operating regularly between ports of call on a scheduled basis.

Liquid Bulk (Tanker) Ship

A vessel with tanks suitable for the accommodation and transportation of liquid bulk cargoes such as oil, chemicals, tallow, etc.

Neo-Bulk Cargo

Uniformly packaged goods, such as wood pulp bales, which stow as solidly as bulk, but are handled as general cargoes.

Non-Conference Lines

Liner services operating outside of conferences and not governed by set tariff rates and conditions.

Non-Vessel Owning Common Carrier (N.V.O.C.C.)

A freight organization engaged in the international shipping business that routinely enters into contracts with shipowners (engaged in regular liner services) for a certain amount of cargo space on the ships deployed. The activity is restricted to container shipping.

Off-Shore Vessel Operator

A firm that manages or owns vessels of a design and size that facilitate the transport of stores and equipment between shore and off-shore oil rigs and can handle the movement of oil rig anchors.

Refrigerated (Reefer) Ship

A vessel that can accommodate cargo requiring refrigeration during transportation.

Ro/Ro Vessels (Roll-On/Roll-Off)

A ship that can accommodate cargo, vehicles and freight driven-on and driven-off over ship or shore ramps.

Shipbroker

A firm engaged in making contracts for the employment of vessels and also negotiates the purchase and sale of ships.

Ship Chandler

A firm that furnishes everything necessary to equip a vessel.

Stevedoring Company

A firm that handles the loading and unloading of vessels.

Through Bill of Lading

A Bill of Lading drawn up to cover goods from point of origin to final destination when transfer from one carrier to another is necessary to complete the journey.

Thru-Rate

A rate application from point of origin to ultimate destination. It consists of two or more separately established rates added together to make a total charge for a through routing, and operating as a unit for a single transportation service and on a Through Bill of Lading.

Tramp Service

Transportation provided by tramp vessels.

Tramp Vessel

A ship not connected with any particular service which carries cargo to any port, does not operate on a regular schedule and rates are negotiable. Bulk cargoes are generally shipped on tramp vessels in shipload quantities.

Ventilated Ship

A vessel that can accommodate cargoes requiring forced draft ventilation during transportation, such as fresh fruit.

Vessel Agent

A firm authorized by an owner to handle the husbandry of their vessels while in port and, for a liner service, act on behalf of the owner in the acquisition of export cargo and dispersal of import cargo.

Vessel Operator

A firm that charters vessels for its service requirements, which are handled by their own offices or appointed agents at ports of call. Vessel operators also handle the operation of vessels on behalf of owners.

Vessel Owner

A firm that owns and operates its company vessels, which are handled by their own offices or appointed agents at ports of call.
